Dear Sir/Madam,

As all of us are aware, New Delhi is hosting the prestigious G-20 Summit on 9th and 10th September, 2023. This will be preceded and followed by several bilaterals also. Elaborate law and order, security and traffic arrangements for the Summit are being laid down by Delhi Police in conjunction with the stakeholder Ministries, Organizations and partners.

To ensure a smooth conduct of the Summit, necessary restrictions and regulations from the traffic perspective are being put in place while being sensitive to the needs of residents of as well as visitors to the National Capital.

While both the Union as well as the GNCT of Delhi have already declared closure of their respective offices for 8th, 9th and 10th of September, it is further considered expedient that your good office be approached to reach out to the officers, employees and partners/civilians associated with the functioning of your Ministry/Department with the message and advise to kindly follow the Information, Education and Communication campaign being run by Delhi Police so that they can plan for a hassle free movement for their personal needs in the duration of the Summit, if they so desire.

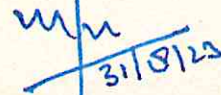

The Delhi Police is operating a traffic virtual Help Desk <https://traffic.delhipolice.gov.in/dtpg20info> to provide commuters with relevant traffic information. In addition the social media handles of Delhi Police viz. <https://www.facebook.com/dtptraffic>, <https://twitter.com/dtptraffic>, <https://www.instagram.com/dtptraffic>, Whatsapp No. 8750871493 and Traffic Helpline Number 1095/011-25844444 are functioning round the clock to ensure that there is minimum inconvenience to the general public. Besides, for real time traffic situation awareness and assistance in navigation, commuters can take help of navigation app Mapppls Map, MapmyIndia available on Android and Apple Store.

It is requested that suitable advisory and publicity by print/electronic/social media handles of your Ministry/Organization may kindly be pursued for ensuring a successful conduct of the prestigious G-20 Summit.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,
